

Turning Point USA at Eastern Florida State

College Constitution

PREAMBLE:

We, the members of Turning Point USA Eastern Florida State College, in order to foster civic engagement, intellectual diversity, and promote the principles of fiscal responsibility, free markets, and constitutional rights, do hereby establish this constitution for the governance of our student organization.

ARTICLE I – ORGANIZATION

Section I. Name

The name of this organization shall be Turning Point USA at Eastern Florida State College

Section II. Mission Statement

Turning Point USA's mission is to educate students about the importance of fiscal responsibility, free markets, and constitutional rights through innovative campus activism and non-partisan, thought-provoking discussion. This is done with the use of provided academic resources, which include: weekly activism pamphlets, short videos, free of charge contributor speeches, and in-person support by TPUSA staff.

Section III. School Registration

The organization shall be independent in its decision-making in accordance with the national Turning Point USA organization. The Executive Board will register the Club or apply for its recognition as a registered student organization.

ARTICLE II – MEMBERSHIP

Section I Voting Members

Membership in the club shall be open to all full-time and part-time Eastern Florida State College students who have attended at least one meeting and remain in good standing with the national organization and the school.

Section II Associate Members

Associate membership in the organization shall be open to any individual who demonstrates an interest and willingness to support the purposes and objectives of the Club but does not attend the school. Associate members may take part in all activities and privileges of the club, though they are not permitted to vote or hold officer positions.

All membership shall be determined without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, age, sex, veteran status, handicap status, or disability.

ARTICLE III. OFFICERS

Section I. Governance

The affairs of the Club shall be managed by its Officers. Officers shall have the general power to manage and control the affairs and property of the Club, adopt rules and regulations governing the actions and activities of the Club, and delegate its authority to officers or committees.
